

PRIMEUR

Primeur Display Stands

Terms & Conditions

Primeur Ltd will, free of charge, supply your outlet with a wooden display stand* and appropriate POS* for the sole purpose of displaying product supplied by Primeur Limited.

* This includes the stands and POS shown below –

The supply is conditional on the terms set out below: -

1. Primeur retain title ownership of the display stands for the full duration of its use.
2. Whilst Primeur Limited will arrange to fix or replace any damaged stands under general wear and tear, any loss of or damage to the stand outside of this will see Primeur Limited raise a claim for the value of the stand to a maximum of £250. Please be aware that these stands have been designed to allow you to move them with fork or pump trucks, any breakages resulting from dragging the stands will not be considered general wear and tear.
3. If used for any purpose other than that for which it is supplied including but not limited to, the display of third party products or advertising material, then Primeur Limited will immediately be entitled to collect the display stand and will at all times be entitled to enter onto the premises to ascertain the use of the display stand and to recover it, if appropriate.
4. Stands must be kept well stocked at all times.
5. In the event the stand is no longer required, under no circumstances should the display be destroyed or disposed of. Primeur should be contacted to arrange removal.